SPECIAL BULLETIN

OFFICE OF TRAINING & EDUCATION

7 October 1985

No. 1-86
TO: Agency Training Officers
SUBJECT: Seminar on Producer-Consumer Relations (PCR)

The PCR Seminar is scheduled for 25 - 26 November 1985, and will be an experimental revision of OTE's Seminar on the Producer/Consumer Relationship. The revised course will still include critiques of CIA analysis by representatives of policy agencies, but it will also include a more deliberate consideration of what analysts and supervisors can do to meet the requirements of the DCI and DDI that greater effort be placed on increasing the utility of our products for the policymaking process. More emphasis will be placed on discussion by the participants in the Seminar regarding overcoming the obstacles to and enhancing the opportunities for more effective intelligence-policy relations.

COURSE DATA

Length: Two days (0830-1630 including working lunches)
Dates: 25-26 November 1985
Location: Room 802 Chamber of Commerce Building
Requirements: Readiness to examine the issue in depth and to contribute to Seminar discussions
